

HOW TO PACK LIGHT!

The "Should I Pack This?" Guide

START

Are you actually going to wear it?

No

Leave it at home.

Yes!

Maybe...

Is it weather appropriate?

What about "just in case"?

You can buy "just in case"s if you really need them on site. You likely won't.

Is this in your Top 3 Favorite [insert clothing type here]?

Very

Probably...

We're trying to pack light. You're much less likely to wear "probably"s. Don't bring it!

Absolutely!

Nope, its low space.

Is it a bright color/unique pattern? Will it match many of the other items you're bringing?

Will it take up a lot of space in your bag?

Kind of.

There are other options—or if it's so voluminous buy a thrifted one there. Space is limited!

It's neutral / it matches my other pieces!

Do you already plan on shopping a lot while you're there? Is there a chance you'll buy something like this as a souvenir anyway?

No, I really REEEALLY need/want this one specifically on my trip!

That's true, I'll probably buy one!

You just freed up some space!

It's a unique clothing piece.

Just know that:
1) If you can only wear it once, its a waste of a piece.
2) If it's too unique, it will be obvious you're rewearing it in different photos
